....My Dear Countrymen, it's very important for us that we all become self dependent and lead a dignified life. I want to mention one such initiative, which has drawn my attention. That initiative is Jammu-Kashmir and Ladakh's Himayat program.

Himayat, in fact is related to skill development and employment which includes teenagers from 15 to 35 years. These people could not complete their studies due to some reasons.

My dear Countrymen you will be happy to know that from last 2 years 18,000 youth in 77 trades have been trained. Out of these 5000 have been already working somewhere. Many others have moved towards self employment. Stories of these people really touch our hearts. Parveen Fatima got promoted as Supervisor cum Coordinator in a garment factory in Tirupur, Tamil Nadu.

A year ago, she was living in a village in Kargil. Today her life has changed in a big way. She has become self dependent and created opportunity for her family. Like Parveen Himayat program has changed destinies of many people in Ladakh. All of them are today working in the same factory in Tamil Nadu.

For Fayaz Ahmad of Doda, Himayat has also proved to be a boon. Fayaz passed his 12th in 2012. But, due to illness he could not continue his studies. Fayaz was struggling with heart disease for 2 years. He lost brother and his sister during that phase. His family suddenly faced many problems. At last, he got help from Himayat. And today he is working in Punjab. Fayaz Ahmad is also about to complete his graduation.

Recently, he shared his experiences in an event of Himayat. He got emotional while sharing his story.

Similarly, Raqeeb Ur Rahman from south Kashmir's Anantnag could not complete his studies due to financial crunch. One day Raqeeb got to know about Himayat through a camp. Raqeeb got enrolled himself in a Retail Team Leader course. After completing his training he is working in a corporate house. There are many examples of talented people benefitted by Himayat. They have become symbol of change in Jammu Kashmir. Himayat is an ideal example of coordination between Government, training partners and employers. It has instilled a new confidence in the youth of Jammu and Kashmir. It has also paved way for them to move forward.

It gives me immense pleasure to present Coffee Table Book on Himayat, a dedicated skill development cum employment program for the school dropouts of UT of Jammu and Kashmir. The prime focus of this program is to make aspirant youth employable and to generate suitable employment opportunities for the biggest asset of our State the youth.

Concerted efforts are being made by the Government to develop symbiotic relationships with all stake holders like industry, academia, youth and many more to empower the youth of the nation with self-reliance, employability skills and to make them productive via knowledge, soft skills and attitude, which would eventually result into a New Skilled India.

I congratulate the Department of Rural Development and Panchayati Raj and all other stake holders, who have been instrumental in bringing out an effective snapshot of the impact of Himayat (DDUGKY) made in Jammu and Kashmir. I wish Himayat becomes a driving force for economic growth and social development of our youth in the formal sector.

I also invite the youth of J&K to come forward and take benefit of this program which is investing in them and has confidence in their capabilities. Together we can build a better J&K.

HIMAYAT is a uniquely focused programme to fill the skill gap in various key sectors. It presents an unprecedented opportunity for unemployed youth not only to get trained but also acquire placement after their training in J&K, it provides an opportunity for unemployed youth to enhance their employability in the available job market across the country.

I am glad to note that the Himayat programme under Department of Rural Development and Panchayati Raj has picked up remarkably in the last 2 years and has transformed the lives of significant number of youth of J&K by giving them a platform to initiate their career and secure their livelihood.

It is satisfying to see the journey of Himayat/DDUGKY under Department of Rural Development and Panchayati Raj being captured in the form of a Coffee Table Book. I hope it captures both the struggles and successes and serves as an inspiration for others too.

SECRETARY TO GOVT., RDD & PR JAMMU & KASHMIR

Himayat (DDUGKY) programme is running in J&K for the past two years in a manner true to its literal meaning of 'support'. In this period it has provided employment worthy skills to around 18000 children from all areas of J&K in 77 different trades ranging from sewing machine operators to Information Technology enabled services and from hospitality to dialysis technicians. Himayat also trains them in communication and computer skills making them confident and self-assured. It has been successful in providing employment to around 5000 youngsters in the age group of 15-35 years who had dropped out of school/ college due to compelling circumstances but are now earning not only for themselves but also for their families.

Worth mentioning are 90 girls from Kargil who have been employed in a firm in Tirupur in Tamil Nadu. One year ago they would not have even imagined moving out of their district, leave alone travelling all the way to Tamil Nadu and that too alone. While they have been immensely benefitted by Himayat they have also set an example for others to follow in remote villages of Kargil.

Not only them but Himayat has set several such examples of confidence building, economic upliftment and social progression for children from every nook and corner of Jammu and Kashmir with no district remaining untouched by its benefits. Counselling session with parents, IEC vans, best practices sharing workshops with Project Implementing Agencies, providing job offer letters at the time of mobilization etc. are some of the innovations of Himayat which make it stand apart and have won recognition at the national level.

I wish the Himayat team keeps changing lives of our children, equipping them to fight circumstances and giving them hope and strength to take strides towards a better and brighter tomorrow.
